South Australia's marine creatures are as weird & wonderful as the names we give them...

Find out what's under the sea & get up close to some real life marine specimens at a evening talk & a rockpool ramble the next morning with marine scientist Alex Gaut (registration req'd)

All ages welcome & refreshments provided!

For more event info or to register for the ramble, contact Jonathan Tuck
