JUNE IS ENVIRONMENTAL MONTH

at the
Mount Gambier Library

City of Mount Gambier
BLUE LAKE CITY

MOUNT GAMBIER
LIBRARY
LEARN CONNECT EXPLORE

WEDNESDAY 5th JUNE at 10.00am & 11.15am
WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY

Our Planet Enterprises deliver a live theatrical performance: Tait & Jones and the Dread Pirate Messbeard!
An invitation has been extended to all schools to attend this performance with educational themes: Environment, Waste & Responsibility. Suitable for Reception to grade 4 students.

Venue: City Hall, The Main Corner
Cost: This is a free community event
Bookings: Please contact The Mount Gambier Library 8721 2540

Nature Glenelg Trust

WEDNESDAY 5th JUNE
THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF FUNGI
Public talk from 11.00am until 12.00pm
Workshop from 1.00pm until 3.00pm

Nature Glenelg Trust proudly present Pam Catcheside from Adelaide Fungal Studies Group. Learn about these often forgotten but important life forms with a public talk followed by a small workshop including identification and basic collecting techniques. Lunch included for those who register.

Venue: The Multifunction Room, The Mount Gambier Library
Cost: This is a free community event
Booking: Workshop strictly limited to numbers telephone 87212540

RECYCLING

You can drop the following items in to the Library for recycling:

Household Batteries
Mobile Phones & Accessories
Bras New and Old

SUNDAY 9th JUNE from 11am until 2pm
DAVID MILES & THE SNAKE PIT TEAM

Get up close and personal with Jessy the Python and Friends! This is a hands on educational session for the whole family. Chance to hold non-venomous snakes with David carefully showcasing some of the more venomous snakes.

Venue: The Main Foyer, The Mount Gambier Library
Cost: This is a free community event
Bookings: Not required

TUESDAY 11th JUNE at 1.30pm
DAVID MILES & THE SNAKE PIT TEAM

This is a hands on session aimed for under 5 year old children and their guardians. In a controlled group, David will showcase a variety of animals, some scaly and some furry, allowing children the chance to pat or hold some of his friends. Photos welcome.

Venue: Children's Cave Area, The Mount Gambier Library
Cost: $2.00 per child (guardians free)
Bookings: Limited contact The Mount Gambier Library 8721 2540

FRIDAY 14th JUNE at 7.00pm
DAN SPENCER: THE CLIMATE CROSSROADS
Shifting Australia in a New Direction

CAS (Community Action for Sustainability) proudly present Dan Spencer from AYCC and Renew Port Augusta

Venue: The Main Corner
Cost: Admission by donation to CAS $5.00
Bookings: Please contact CAS cas4sustainability@gmail.com

SATURDAY 15th JUNE at 10.30pm
LANCE KAIRL: STRAWBALE CONSTRUCTION

Lance is South Australia's most experienced strawbale builder and current secretary of the Australasian Strawbale Building Association and member of the Housing Industry Assoc. Lance has extensive knowledge of working with strawbales as a building medium and can provide consulting packages for designers, builders and owners.

Venue: The Multifunction Room, The Mount Gambier Library
Cost: This is a free community event
Bookings: Please contact The Mount Gambier Library 8721 2540

SATURDAY 15th JUNE from 11.30am until 1.30pm
WILD 4 LIFE

Dani from Wild 4 Life will bring you a unique and hands on experience with some of Australia's everyday and endangered wildlife. From cute to slimy from scaly to creepy!

Venue: The Main Foyer, Mount Gambier Library
Cost: This is a free community event
Bookings: Not required

SATURDAY 15th JUNE at 12.00pm
CRICHTON FIRESIDE SHOP: PELLET FIRES

Information session on affordable eco-friendly Pellet Fires. Find out how they work, how they are cost effective, energy efficient and clean and environmentally friendly. Check out the display in the Mount Gambier Library!

Venue: The Multifunction Room, The Mount Gambier Library
Cost: This is a free community event
Bookings: Not required

SUNDAY 16th JUNE from 11.00am until 2.00pm
RECYCLED ART COMPETITION FOR CHILDREN

Using a variety of recyclable household materials to create your masterpiece. It can be anything you want: canvas art/mobile/ puppet..let your imagination run wild! Prizes for the most unique and well designed entry. Categories: 6 y.o. & under. 7 y.o. & above. Art will be displayed for one week.

Venue: Children's Cave Area, The Mount Gambier Library
Cost: This is a free community event
Bookings: Not required

SATURDAY 22nd JUNE at 10.30am
MAKING YOUR OWN CLEANING PRODUCTS

Permaculture Mount Gambier will host a workshop on making your own natural cleaning products.

Venue: The Multifunction Room, The Mount Gambier Library
Cost: This is a free community event
Bookings: Strictly Limited please contact Kristi Leamey 8721 2540

SATURDAY 22nd JUNE at 12.00pm
CRICHTON FIRESIDE SHOP: PELLET FIRES

Information session on affordable eco-friendly Pellet Fires. Find out how they work, how they are cost effective, energy efficient and clean and environmentally friendly. Check out the display in the Mount Gambier Library!

Venue: The Multifunction Room, The Mount Gambier Library
Cost: This is a free community event
Bookings: Not required

SATURDAY 22nd JUNE &
SUNDAY 23rd JUNE
FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY
BIG BOOK SALE

Thousands of books, DVDs, CDs, magazines some new some second hand. Proceeds to benefit the Mount Gambier Library's educational programs and materials that promote literacy for children, teens & adults.

Venue: The Main Foyer, The Mount Gambier Library

SUNDAY 23rd JUNE
LIFE IN THE DEADWOOD

Session 1 at 11.30am (45min)

Nature's recyclers, beetles, what lives in hollows and sustainable firewood options.

With Kris Messenger, Oisin Sweeney, Natural Resources SE & Peter Feast, Mimosa Farm Trees.

Session 2: 1.30pm (45min)

Minibeasts, Bugs, Beetles and More!

With Kris Messenger and the Bugs n Slugs Team.

Venue: The Multifunction Room, The Mount Gambier Library
Cost: This is a free community event
Bookings: Please contact the Mount Gambier Library 8721 2540

Also ..

Bugs n Slugs Display: Get up close to Kris and the minibeasts. Peter Feast from Mimosa Farm Trees will be on hand with local native plants for sale and to talk firewood.

SUNDAY 23rd JUNE from 11.00am until 2.00pm
TRASH TO TREASURE
LIBRARY MARKETS

In an attempt to stop pre-loved goods ending up in landfill. From prams to cots to homewares, collectables, toys, books, clothing and shoes. Something for everyone!

Venue: The Verandah, The Mount Gambier Library
Stall Bookings: Strictly Limited telephone Susie 87212540

FRIDAY 28th JUNE
Doors open at 6.00pm
RECYCLED RUNWAY FASHION SHOW

A fashion show like no other! Anglican Church Pre-Loved Clothing have generously donated a collection of garments that local budding designers need to adapt to a fashionable wearable item.

The final pieces will be presented in a runway fashion show with guest judges, Jan Miller and Keith Hamilton looking for quality, design, Technique and wearability in their critique. Two categories: High School Students and Open Adults. Prize for each category $100 voucher from Damzel Recycled Clothing.

Interested in entering? Please contact Kristi Leamey 87212540 who can give you full entry conditions and details.

Venue: City Hall, The Main Corner
Cost: Tickets for the fashion show are $5.00 includes nibbles & lucky door prizes. Full bar available.
Bookings: Tickets available in advance from the Library

For further information please contact
The Mount Gambier Library
6 Watson Terrace, Mount Gambier SA 5290
Telephone 08 87212540

Follow us on facebook for more information